The Sword and the Sorcerer

Having conquered practically every kingdom in the medieval world, the evil King Cromwell had yet one more kingdom to subdue, the richest of them all, Eh-Dan.

Unable to do so militarily, he turns to an evil force, the Sorcerer, whom he awakens from a thousand-year sleep. As a result, Eh-Dan is destroyed. Only the young Prince Talon escapes, vowing to avenge his family and his kingdom.

Eleven years pass and Prince Talon is a young man and leader of a band of tough mercenaries. He encounters the beautiful Alana being attacked by a group of drunken soldiers. She seeks his help in rescuing her imprisoned brother, Mikah. Talon is successful and rescues the Prince and other rebel prisoners, only to be captured himself. Although impaled by spikes, Talon's super-human strength frees him from the bonds and in a head-on confrontation kills the Sorcerer, Xusia, with his tripple bladed sword.

Only Cromwell remains and he, too, is felled by Talon's mighty sword. The force of good has triumphed over evil!

The biggest and the best of the big epic films. Reviewed as better than "CONAN", "EXCALIBUR" and "CLASH OF THE TITANS", it ranks with the biggest grossing films ever produced. Now a classic of its type, this blazing adventure takes our hero from one exciting exploit to another, again and again. Pure excitement from start to finish. A real blockbuster.
