ZARRA'S LAW

Family is above the law

Zarra's Law is a compelling story of two brothers on opposite sides of the law. Tony Zarra, the older brother, is a seasoned cop whose younger sibling Roberto is a Capo with the Mob. One night, in front of his house, his Roberto falls victim to a car bomb.

On circumstantial evidence, Bobby Stax, an ambitious mobster is convicted in the killing and sent to prison. The violent death breaks the Zarra family apart. Gaetano, Roberto's son, joins the army while his Grandmother seeks solace in alcohol. Tony retires from the force.

Two years later – Bobby Stax gets an early parole. Before long, he is back in in the saddle and Tony Zarra finds himself pulled back into the criminal world he thought he'd left behind after his brother's funeral.

Aided by Gaetano, who has meanwhile returned from service and become a lawyer, Tony Zarra, the ex-Cop, embarks on a painful journey to solve the mystery surrounding his younger brother's death at the hands of organized crime.

Starring SAG Award winner Tony Sirico ("Sopranos", "Goodfellas"), Academy Award nominee Burt Young ("Rocky"), Brendan Fehr ("Bones", "X-Men: First Class", "Rosswell") and Erin Cummings ("Spartacus: Blood and Sand"), this New York set gangster drama climbs to a violent conclusion, fueled by passion, family loyalty and revenge.
